The British Olympic Association (BOA) is today delighted to announce the following judo players to represent Team GB at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games, which begin on August 13.

Men's Competition

Craig Fallon -60kg

Winston Gordon -90kg

Women's Competition

Georgina Singleton -52kg

Sophie Cox -57kg

Sarah Clark -63kg

Kate Howey -70kg

Rachel Wilding -78kg

Karina Bryant +78kg

Craig Reddie, the Chairman of the British Olympic Association said: "I am delighted to welcome these eight judo players into Team GB following fine performances in various qualifying events. In particular, the number of medals won in the world and European championships over the past year ensure we have some exciting prospects to look out for in Athens."

Udo Quellmalz, British Judo Performance Director and Team Leader for the Athens 2004 Olympic Games said: "We are delighted to have qualified eight players through the tough judo Olympic qualification process. The past performances of every team member shows their potential to achieve a good result at the Games. We will now use the next few months to ensure they are fully prepared and ready to perform to their full potential."
